COACHING BIOGRAPHIES

Jason Mahowald
Head Swimming & Diving Coach

Jason Mahowald is in his fifth season as the head men's and women's swimming and diving coach at The University of South Dakota. Mahowald will lead the Coyotes into their second season of transitioning to Division I status.

In 2008-09 under Mahowald, USD continued to rewrite its record books, with six more new team records in yards and seven more being set in meters. The Coyote men's season was highlighted by a big dual win over in-state rival South Dakota State, while the Coyote women also recorded their first Division I win over Northern Iowa. USD's men's team finished third at the Northern Sun Championships. Mahowald was named the Northern Sun Men's Coach of the Year as a result of the team's showing. The Coyote women finished fourth at the event. Mahowald was named as one of the outstanding coaches by the American Swimming Coaches Association for 2008, 2007, 2006. There have been 21 All-Americans at USD under Mahowald's tenure. Mahowald earned a B.S. degree in business administration from Wisconsin-Stevens Point (2002) and received a Master's degree in sports administration from Ball State (2005).

Anthony Harris
Assistant Swimming & Diving Coach

Anthony Harris is in his fifth year as the assistant coach for Coyotes Swimming and Diving Team.

Harris has been instrumental in the success of the Coyote Swimming & Diving Program. He helped coach the Coyote women's program to three consecutive Top 10 finishes at the NCAA Championships. Harris has also helped South Dakota produce a total of 21 All-American swimming and diving performances and a total of 26 All-Americans Honorable Mention performances. Prior to coming to USD Harris was a graduate assistant coach for the St. Cloud State Swimming and Diving Team from 2003-05. While at St. Cloud State, he coached 13 NCAA All-American student-athletes while working with coach Jeff Hegle. Harris has served as a swimming camp coach at the Longhorn Swim Camp in Austin, Texas (2002, 2003). From 1999 to 2002, Harris was a member of the Wisconsin-Stevens Point Swim Team. At Wisconsin-Stevens Point, he was a 18-time conference champion and an eight-time All-American. As a four-year letter winner, Harris was named team captain and selected team MVP in his final year at Stevens Point.

Harris earned a B.A. degree in communications from Wisconsin-Stevens Point (2003) and received a Master's degree in sports management from St. Cloud State in December of 2005.
