

COYOTE TOUR

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH DAKOTA ATHLETICS HOWLING PACK

Dakota Dunes, SD – A record 89 people participated in this year's golf outing at the Dakota Dunes Country Club. The event was the first stop of the 2009 Coyote Golf Tour presented by Sanford Health. All proceeds will be donated to the Howling Pack, which annually provides funding to support 350 USD student-athletes that compete in 17 sports at the NCAA Division I level.

The format was a best ball scramble. We separated the teams into two flights and awarded prizes for first and second place. The winning players from the last three teams listed below were awarded gift certificates to use at the Dakota Dunes Pro Shop. The winners of flight one were given tickets to a 2009-10 Minnesota Timberwolves basketball game. A tiebreaker was used to determine the first and second place finishers of flight two.

Flight One, 1st Place – Adam Lloyd, Todd Sapp, Brian Schultz, and Bob Scott with a score of 54.

Flight Two, 1st Place – Morris Bates, Tom Heinz, Mike Keller, and John Maynes with a score of 64.

Flight One, 2nd Place – Milt Avery, Noel Avery, Ryan Avery, and Ben Keane with a score of 57.

Flight Two, 2nd Place – Dave Bain, Chris Kolker, Steve Mayer, and Ryun Williams with a score of 64.

Wrap Up

Thank you to all golfers and hole sponsors for participating in the 2009 golf outing at Dakota Dunes Country Club. With your support, the event raised approximately $2,500 on behalf of the Howling Pack. As the fundraising arm of the athletics department, contributions to the Howling Pack allows our student-athletes to attend a great academic institution, compete at the NCAA Division I level, and graduate with their degree. On behalf of our student-athletes, coaches, and staff, thank you for your support and we look forward to seeing you at another USD event in the future.

Special Thanks
